

A Message to Our Students Regarding the Upcoming Examinations

Dear Students

As we approach the final weeks of the academic term, the atmosphere within our school community naturally shifts toward a period of intense focus and rigorous preparation. Examinations are a significant milestone in your educational journey, serving as a formal opportunity to demonstrate the knowledge, skills, and critical thinking you have developed throughout the year.

While this season can be demanding, I encourage you to view it not as a hurdle, but as a culmination of your hard work. Success in this environment is rarely the result of a single moment of brilliance, but rather the outcome of disciplined, strategic preparation.

Strategic Focus for the Examination period

To ensure you perform to the best of your ability, I advise you to adhere to the following principles:

Systematic Revision: Approach your subjects with a structured plan. Prioritize areas that require more depth and use active recall techniques to solidify your understanding.

Academic Integrity: Excellence is meaningful only when it is achieved with honesty. We expect every student to uphold the highest standards of integrity and conduct during the assessment process.

Disciplined Routine: Your cognitive performance is directly linked to your physical well-being. Maintain a consistent sleep schedule and ensure you are fueling your body appropriately to sustain your concentration levels.

Mental Fortitude: It is natural to feel a sense of pressure. However, true resilience is found in staying calm and methodical. Approach each paper one question at a time.

A Final Word of Encouragement

The faculty and administration have full confidence in your abilities. We have witnessed your dedication in the classroom, and we are certain that your efforts will be reflected in your results. Remember that while these assessments are important, they are but one chapter in your broader academic and personal development.

Stay focused, remain disciplined, and approach your exams with the confidence that comes from thorough preparation.

We wish you every success in your upcoming endeavors.

Respectfully,
Vice Principal

अंतर्राष्ट्रीय मातृभाषा दिवस'

आ रही है परीक्षा

EXAM!

"प्रत्येक वर्ष 21 फरवरी को पूरी दुनिया में 'अंतर्राष्ट्रीय मातृभाषा दिवस' मनाया जाता है।

मातृभाषा- हमारी पहचान की नींव
मातृभाषा का महत्व और भावनाएं

"मातृभाषा केवल संवाद का माध्यम नहीं, बल्कि हमारे संस्कारों और पहचान की नींव है। जिस प्रकार एक शिशु अपनी माँ की गोद में सबसे सुरक्षित महसूस करता है, उसी प्रकार अपनी मातृभाषा में विचार व्यक्त करना सबसे सहज होता है। गांधीजी के अनुसार, मातृभाषा हृदय की भाषा है जो सीधे एक हृदय को दूसरे से जोड़ती है। आज के वैश्विक दौर में अन्य भाषाएँ सीखना आवश्यक है, लेकिन अपनी मातृभाषा का सम्मान करना और उसे जीवित रखना हमारा परम कर्तव्य है क्योंकि यह हमारी सांस्कृतिक विरासत को सहेजने की कड़ी है।

नई शिक्षा नीति और मातृभाषा

"वैज्ञानिक शोध और भारत की नई शिक्षा नीति (NEP 2020) इस बात पर जोर देती है कि प्राथमिक शिक्षा मातृभाषा में होनी चाहिए। जब बच्चा अपनी मातृभाषा में पढ़ता है, तो उसका संज्ञानात्मक विकास तेजी से होता है और वह अवधारणाओं को बेहतर ढंग से समझ पाता है। यह न केवल बच्चों में आत्मविश्वास बढ़ाता है, बल्कि उन्हें अपनी जड़ों से भी जोड़े रखता है। हम अपनी भाषा पर गर्व करेंगे और इसे आने वाली पीढ़ियों के लिए संरक्षित रखेंगे। मातृभाषा है हमारी शान, इसमें बसता हमारा स्वाभिमान।"

"भाषा वही जो दिल को छू जाए, मातृभाषा ही हमें अपनापन सिखाए।"

"अपनी भाषा, अपनी पहचान; मातृभाषा का करें सम्मान।
